

Will I have more Federal Taxes deducted from my paycheck?

For each payroll, federal income tax is calculated based on the answers provided on your current W-4 on file and year to date federal taxable income, which is then referenced to the tax tables set by the IRS based on pay frequency. The current tax rates are 0%, 10%, 12%, 22%, 24%, 32%, 35%, or 37%. Federal Taxable Income is your gross pay minus any pre-tax deduction elections you currently have.

The example below shows an hourly employee paid weekly vs bi-weekly. The hourly rate is $29.85/hr. 401K pre-tax deduction is 3% based on your election. A 2019 W-4 is the last W-4 on file for Single with 2 Allowances.

Regular	40 hrs	$29.85	$1194.00	401k Pre-tax is $35.82
Federal Taxable Gross $1194.00 minus $35.82 = $1,158.18
Federal Tax that will be deducted is $107.00 for a weekly paycheck for 40 hrs regular pay
